We need to focus on the needs of our residents and city today, while keeping an eye on Calgary's future. Strong transportation networks, a sustainable economy and a thoughtful approach to growth will help us evolve as a city. Having accessible, quality services and vibrant arts and culture are part of what makes living and working in Calgary something to be proud of. Safe streets, engaged residents and complete communities are things that we love about our neighbourhoods and want to see continue. Calgary is a great city. We need to continue to focus on projects, services and initiatives that serve our residents and move us forward in a positive way.

ROBERT DICKINSON FOR WARD 11

My focus when making decisions as a councillor will be Building Strong Communities Together through Accountability, Collaboration and Forward Thinking. More details on my values and how these three pillars will guide my decision making can be found on my website, RobertDickinson.ca.

Our communities and you, as a resident, are affected by decisions made at the City level. These decisions and how they are implemented determine how well our communities function now and into the future. As your potential city councillor, I appreciate and understand that the choices I make will have the most direct impact on your day-to-day life. I will always be open, accessible and respect your voice. I will encourage positive conversation and engagement, in council and in our communities.

I encourage you to review my full platform document as well as my website for blog posts and updates. Please reach out at any time if you have questions or feedback about my platform or where I stand on any given issue or opportunity you see as a priority.

I look forward to hopefully having the privilege and opportunity to represent you and Ward 11 on Council.

ABOUT ROBERT:

I am entering politics to foster meaningful partnerships between communities, businesses and the City, to preserve and extend our social and economic prosperity through sound decision-making. Professionally, I have extensive private and public sector experience. I began my career as an entrepreneur and business owner. Over 10 years of running a small business in Calgary has shown me the value of hard work and community support, as well the challenges and opportunities many local companies in Calgary are facing. Small business is critical to the overall health of the Calgary economy and I believe we need to continue to find innovative ways to help entrepreneurs succeed. I have lived in Calgary for most of my life (much of that in Ward 11) and I enjoy all the opportunities and activities it has to offer.
